A credit card guarantee and nonrefundable 50% deposit is required to book and confirm a private party. Full payment of the remaining balance is required by the host at the evening's close. The remaining balance is to be paid in one transaction. Tipping your nail technician is not required but is customary and appreciated.

A 72 hour cancellation/revision notice is required. If you cancel less than 72 hours in advance you will be charged the full fee. In the event of a cancellation prior to 72 hours, the guaranteed deposit may be used within six months to reserve another private event.

Parties begin promptly. If your guests arrive late, Nailed! does not guarantee that everyone will be accommodated, so please encourage your guests to arrive on time.
